).Q: My pixelated iPhone App is partially transparent I have created an app for iPhone, which was published successfully in iTunes and AppStore, but I have a problem, while the app is not in review, the app is partially transparent. I want my app not to show any part of the landscape and be transparent, but it does not work as I want. How can I make an app full screen and be transparent? A: Here is the important screenshot: You can add two constraints:

self.edgesForExtendedLayout = UIRectEdgeNone; [self setExtendedL ayoutIncludesOpaqueBars:NO]; Or

`[self setOpaque:NO]; [self setBackgroundColor:[UIColor clearColor]];` I know it's late but I am in the same situation, here are a few lines of code which will cause your app to be transparent:

self.view.backgroundColor = [UIColor clearColor]; self.navigationController.navigationBar.shadowImage = nil;

Keep in mind that you need to add this line inside the `UINavigationController viewDidAppear:` method. EDIT: Try setting the `imageView's userInteractionEnabled` property to `NO`. The present invention is directed to an improvement in the process of agglomerating 3e33713323
