The game has everything! the depth of the gameplay will keep you on your toes for hours on end. Create, manage, strategize and win competitions. The game is not about tanks. It's not about the shootouts. Strategy game. About a strategy that is based on the development and training of a team of players. At the moment, this is the best MMO project in which you can feel like a real General! The game has everything: from simple teams to large clans. You will be able to create teams and manage them. You will be able to develop the skills of your players. You will be able to complete missions and tasks. The game is very beautiful and dynamic.
