Designs Sea Punk Deluxe Arthur Costume Costume includes: Dress shirt, pants, foam hat, rubber gloves, rubber mask, laced boots, wig This is a dashing full costume for the Sea Punk Arthur holiday, with a slight nod to the Victorian age. This Arthur costume for women has a great combination of authentic vintage features and the latest tailoring technology. The lovely lacy Victorian headdress is created with couture silk felt, which is cut and hand-stitched in the UK. It comes complete with a fantastically detailed re-enforced wire crown, and it is festooned with hundreds of silk crystals and delicate pearls. The corset top is modern, but it fits firmly with two useful hanging hook fasteners. The black fishnet sleeves have authentic pearl buttons. Full costume has a skirt. Arthur the Evergreen Kingdom Arthur's idea of royalty is to surround himself with his band of merry men and women who can carry him from one quest to the next. Nowadays his hobbies are generally far less dangerous. In his day, however, he was the legendary king of the Evergreen Kingdom; handsome, virile, and uninhibited. He had a go at every prize, renowned the length and breadth of the world for his prowess and wittiness. Squeaking aside, he even held his own with the most formidable fighting forces. Arthur and his British Knights took on the notorious highwayman Arthur Crakethorpe bare-handed in a knock down drubbing that earned them their very own wenching hall. Arthur: King of the Evergreen Kingdom Arthur is the most famous of five brothers. Only one of the brothers became king of the Evergreen Kingdom. The other four sons of Arthur's father King Macaire, who reigned as King of the Uplands since their court wizard was poisoned by a serpent in 1380, fought over the crown one day when the king was at an out-of-season hunt. The eldest brother, Prince Stirt, is a scheming coward who is only good as a friend at parties. He endangers the kingdom by awarding the kingdom to his young mistress. The king, indignant that his first son would ever disgrace him, deposes him. The next brother, Cerdic, is the meanest of the brothers; he is so blind to those who hate him that he married the two children of his best friend, Gamora. Next comes the gentle Devyll
