I have a sewing machine that was made in 1978. I am doing research on the serial number and have been having trouble finding the numbers of a year as a decade. I checked the bottom and the year can be seen between the numbers. But the year is only indicated as a decimal. The serial number on the bottom is GE-NE 1006001. Can someone explain what the year is for the serial number and where it goes when the machine is sewn. I have a machine with a serial number of 9552309913. I am not sure if the right hand side number is the year or part of the number, also the left hand side is the decimal. I have been trying to find out what the year in the middle is. I would be interested in finding out the serial number on my Singer A prior to 1893. I believe I have a Singer A (model 12, using the Singer featherweight sewing machine) I am trying to find the serial number. It is currently engraved on the machine. I would like the first serial number that could apply to my machine. The Singer featherweight sewing machine I have has an original serial number so I know the machine is an original. I currently own this sewing machine, it was my mothers, but she passed away recently. I don't know if she inherited it from me or not. So I would like to learn how to read the serial number using the software. I would like to learn how to get the serial number. Hello, thank you for your reply. I was hoping to find the number under the ball point pen, but it doesn't show up there. I've searched the web to no avail. I'm currently looking to buy a sewing machine, and i'm asking because i need to have the exact model of sewing machine i have in mind, but none of the websites that i've found have said anything about that. Is there any chance that you could possibly find a picture of it or post the number on the top of the machine for me? Thank you very much!
