I've been with her for almost 9 years and I think she is the most loving, sweet, goofy, friendly cat on the planet. And our cat, Jasper, at 5 is starting to understand that he's very lucky to have a best friend in the house. This was my "view" on a cold and wet spring day. I wanted to capture how sunlight and rain danced on the glossy leaves of the red dogwood. My husband turned me on to this tree and he finds it particularly striking during the spring and fall. There's something about it that's just....joyful. Contrary to some people's opinions, I'm an advocate of working on your house. When things get old and worn out and the paint is peeling, you usually want something that says "new". These modern homes have a lot to offer but they will never
